

Table of Contents Fall 2018

Southern Maryland-This is Living

46

JOHN KITE

10

COLLEGE OF SOUTHERN MARYLAND

34

BFF PET SERVICES

38

NAVAIR

67

VKVM

73

PHOTO COURTESY OF SOTTERLEY

FEATURES

38 For 75 years, NAS Patuxent River has brought the Navy, newcomers, progress and pride to Southern Maryland.

46 The region's Amish and Mennonite communities branch out from their farming roots into businesses that fill niches and meet demands for locally made goods and services.

DEPARTMENTS

10 Educated Living

Celebrating a valuable community resource as the College of Southern Maryland marks its 60th anniversary.

15 Extraordinary Living

Saluting those who have served our country.

18 Business Living

Charlotte Hall furniture restoration company finds its workmanship in demand all across the region.

21 Garden Living

Be dazzled by dahlias, the comeback queens of the fall.

28 Community Living

The region's libraries aren't just for books anymore. Take a look. There's something for everyone.

31 What to Read

Sit with author Merideth Taylor as she listens in on "Echoes and Artifacts" from the Mother County.

34 Pet Living

Learn, love and bond with your canine at BFF Pet Services.

56 Garage Living

The Pantera was a car fit for The King. This father and son gave their restoration project the royal treatment.

60 Flavorful Living – Menu

Vine & Dine in Solomons. Six scrumptious courses and equally delicious wine pairings. Bon appetit!

63 Flavorful Living

There's a new chef in town. Meet Gwyn Novak and learn about her No Thyme to Cook kitchen, which recently opened in Solomons.

67 Creative Living

When life gives you pumpkins, it's time to create something for the fall.

68 Eventful Living

So much to see and do! Plus information on fall festivals, how to honor service members on Veterans Day and where to show off your Halloween costume.

ON THE COVER

Fall is in full swing at Zimmerman's Nursery in Loveville. (Photo by Vickie Kite Milburn)