

Gary Garcia, St. Mary's City

Wonderful Winter

As winter approaches, it has us wondering what's in store weather-wise. Will there be plenty of snow? Lots of ice and frigid temperatures? Only Mother Nature knows and, as always, she's keeping us in suspense!

Last winter didn't deter local photographers from bundling up and heading into the great outdoors for Southern Maryland moments frozen in time (pun intended). We asked for submissions for our annual Winter Wonderland photo contest and were very pleased with the results. Readers will find beautiful pictures that remind us of the cold months earlier in 2018. They captured winter sunsets on the water, snow-covered rivers and roadways, a St. Mary's City snow day, a beautiful bald eagle and cute little mini horses.

Carrie Lovejoy, Newburg

Cindy Hartman, Hughesville

Cindy Hartman, Mallows Bay

Wayne Davis, St. George Island

Gary Garcia, St. Mary's City

1st Place, Merideth Taylor, Park Hall on cover

Kathryn Newman, Indian Head

Lauren Lovejoy, Newburg

James Lloyd, Hollywood

Brenda Bowie, Chaptico

James Lloyd, Hollywood

Kathy Woodington, Mechanicsville

Carrie Lovejoy, Newburg

Rose Guyther, Abell

Wayne Davis, Breton Bay

Rose Guyther, Abell

Kathryn Newman, Alexandria

Donna Harrigan, Bryantown